

City of Burlington Annual Community Awards

HERB BLOOMENTHAL AWARD FOR COMMUNITY ACTIVISM

Do you know a community leader who has demonstrated tenacity and dedication in improving Burlington's neighborhoods? If so, please consider nominating them for the Herb Bloomenthal Award for Community Activism. This award was created to honor the life and volunteer work of Herb Bloomenthal, who died prematurely on September 6, 2000 after a lifetime of engagement and community service. Each year, the award is given to a resident of Burlington who is not a City employee who has tirelessly committed to working to serve their neighborhoods. To nominate someone, send a 600-word description of how the nominee meets or exceeds this commitment and provide the complete name, title, and contact information of the nominee. Nominations may be submitted by any individual or group to Kesha Ram, CEDO Public Engagement Specialist, at kram@burlingtonvt.gov or by mail to 149 Church Street, Burlington, VT 05401.

PETER CLAVELLE AWARD

Do you know a professional whose leadership has advanced social equity, environmental stewardship, quality education, or economic growth and vitality in Burlington? If so, please consider nominating them for the annual Peter Clavelle Award. Nomination materials available at: <http://www.burlingtonvt.gov/Sustainability/Peter-Clavelle-Award>. For more information on the award, please contact Jennifer Green at jgreen@burlingtonvt.gov.

AWARD DEADLINES

Nominations for both awards must be submitted by August 15, 2014 and will be reviewed by a group of community stakeholders. Please mark your calendars for the annual Celebrate Burlington event at the BCA Center on September 22, where both awards will be bestowed.
